THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

Our Richmond Correspondence.

RICHMOND, VA., Aug. 29.

Dear Sentinel:—Our city is all astir this week, for Robinson's Circus and Menagerie has arrived in all its pomp and pageantry. Its procession through our streets was magnificent. Little and big, white and black, crowded the canvass last night, and all seemed highly amused and entertained, pronouncing it the best Circus that has ever visited Richmond. The Equestrianism, tight-rope performance, sayings of the witty clowns, and all, were excellent. To particularize, we may mention, especially, the daring acts of horsemanship by a negro boy, apparently not over 15 years old, who is said to have been born in Charlestown, Va., and afterwards carried to the State of Mississippi and sold to Mr. Joe Davis, a brother of our late honored President, and whose skill was discovered by the proprietors of this Circus, and cultivated somewhat. He now bids fair to excel, in the art of bare-back riding, any performer in the country. It was amusing to see how the negroes enjoyed his different feats and the vociferous applause elicited whenever "Mr. Henry Willis, the African Equestrian," appeared in the ring.

Several side shows, of course, are along, and the same "feller," (with the organs inside) in his stentorian voice, is proclaiming, "Here's your fat woman." "This way to see the man "swallow the sword." "Right along to see the educated hog Riley, etc." This latter is worth seeing. He is surely trained well, and is quite a wonder. On our entrance Riley and a visitor were playing a game of "Euchre;" the hog, of course, somewhat assisted by his trainer in the way of punching to tell him which card to play, &c. The visitor won the game, when the trainer said to Riley, "its nothing to beat a hog, is it, Riley?" when Mr. Piggie gave a shake of the head, with an audible grunt, "no."

Robinson is going South and will soon be in Raleigh with his "bill sticker," and, no great while thereafter, with his show.

In the way of amusements, this fall and winter, the new Richmond Theatre is to be opened in September, Mr. R D. Ogden as Manager, with a fine stock company, and the public are promised many of the most celebrated actors and actresses of the country, including among them Madame Ristori. By the way, without positively being informed, we should suppose that arrangements could easily be accomplished, during "bulls" here, to have Ristori, or any others of those expected and shortly to be announced, pay the "City of Oaks" a flying trip, now that you have "Tucker Hall" completed, and such a Hall, with a Raleigh appreciative audience, could be nothing but pleasant to all.

Quite a scene occurred, a few evenings since, at Grand Mogul Hunnicutt's head quarters, the New Nation office. It seems it was pay-day for the hands employed on this sheet, and Hunnicutt's treasury not being over full for some time, they have (a majority of them of the African persuasion and color) not been regularly paid up. Now everybody wonders, as they, the negroes, said, "how we gwine to work for you, Mistur Hunnicutt, and you don't pay us, and you selling so many papers round to wun, too. How we going to lib, feed our children, wives, &c." They made various other demands upon this old ——; until it's reported old H., being fired up with a pint or so of the "Craythur," fairly roared with rage, and it is said used profane language to an extent not common with those wearing the white cravat; telling his employees that his finances were in a deplorable condition and that a man without money couldn't pay. However, a call was that evening made, and a meeting held, composed, of course, of all the low mean whites and of the same class of negroes.—The object of the meeting, as afterwards leaked out, (mind you, the reporters were all excluded,) was to devise means for the support of this aforesaid dirty sheet; and after a huge speech from old Hunnicutt, of considerable length, his proposition was finally carried. It was this: That each negro voter should contribute 25 cents per month for the support of the New Nation. This, in addition to recent Congressional "pap," will float the old pirate clear of the breakers. Hunnicutt has an inventive brain, to say the least; especially for gulling the foolish negroes, all of whom look upon him as one of the gods.

We would like to sketch him for you, but too much time would be uselessly employed. He is the meanest looking creature (save one, perhaps,) we have ever met with.

The Tredegar Iron Works, of Confederate cannon notoriety, in our late war, are now performing large amounts of work for the different Rail Roads, South, giving employment to great numbers of hands. Gen. J. R. Anderson is its President still, as of yore. Its work chiefly, now, is moulding car wheels, rails, re-rolling old rails, making chains, spikes, &c; and its daily shipments are very extensive.

Three small iron steamers are near completion at these Works, intended for the oyster inspection for the State of Virginia. They will be of light draft, so as to ascend any of the various Creeks, collecting that tax which has been hitherto evaded by those from other States, oystering in her waters. They are expected to be quite fast and a source of much revenue—reflecting great credit upon the "Tredegar."

It will be interesting to the travellers, North, to state that the city connections between Rail Roads of both Richmond and Petersburg have been completed, and now passengers proceed from Weldon, N. C. to Acquia Creek without a change of cars, and vice versa; of course, only making stoppages at Petersburg and Richmond a few moments, with a change only of conductors and engines at each place.

Richmond trade seems to be brightening up and getting livelier as the fall approaches. The girls with their pretty little short walking dresses, and the boys, with their dittoed coats, are at this time crowding our principal streets.

Everything looks gay and happy, even if "Gold is up" and Grant and old Andy are about to "mix."

GRAPHO.

The Petersburg Index is authorized to state that Dr. Beckwith has not formally accepted the Bishopric of Georgia. Dr. B. left Petersburg on Monday, and will return in a short time to his charge in New Orleans.

With regard to the mention of Stanton for the Presidency, the New Haven Register says that with Conover for Secretary of State, he might run well, for a short pull.

TOTAL LOSSES PAID OVER $6,000,000.

DIVIDENDS PAID TO ASSURED OVER $1,000,000.

NUMBER OF POLICIES IN FORCE OVER 48,000.

The Connecticut Mutual Life INSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD, CONN.,

Was organized in 1846. Its success has not been equalled by any other Company organized upon the purely mutual system; it has no proprietary or Stock Capital; and the pre-eminent satisfaction, therefore, in the contemplation of its vast figures, is, that they denote not the enrichment of a Corporation, but present and coming blessing to Thousands of Homes!

All policies non-forfeitable by their terms.

No extra charge made on policy holders, except only where the risk is extra hazardous.

The undersigned will take pleasure in explaining and proving any of his statements.

☞ All persons contemplating Life Insurance are requested, and will find it to their interest, to contrast other Companies, represented in this State, with the Conn. Mutual, as published in the Reports of the Insurance Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts.

THE NORTH AMERICA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System the accumulated profits going to the assured.

This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.

No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.

Thirty days' of grace are allowed on all renewal premiums and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.

No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.

No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.

Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.

Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.

Our dividend, January 1st, 1866, was 45 per cent.

Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.

Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.

The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 251 per cent; which is nearly double that of any other New York company.

Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.

RAILROADS.

GREAT NATIONAL DOUBLE TRACK ROUTE TO THE WEST.

BALTIMORE AND OHIO AND RALEIGH AND GASTON RAIL ROADS.

PERSONS wishing to travel or Emigrate to the Western and South Western States from this part of North Carolina, are informed, that permanent arrangements have been made between the above Rail Roads, by which Passengers can obtain through tickets, at the Office of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road at RALEIGH, to

St. Louis, Mo,
Cincinati, Ohio,
Chicago, Ill.
Indianapolis, Ind,
Cleveland Ohio.
St. Josephs, Mo.
Cairo, Ill.
Memphis, Tenn.
Milwaukie, Wis.
Detroit, Mich.
Pittsburg, Pa.
Kansas City, Mo.
Columbus, Ohio.

and all Western and South Western Cities.

Passengers goin West from Raleigh, via the Baltimore & Ohio Rail Road, can either take the Route, via Portsmouth and Bay Line of Steamers to Baltimore, or the route, via Richmond & Fredericksburg and Potomac Rail Road, to Washington City; where close connections are made with three Daily Express Trains on the Baltimore & Ohio Rail Road for all Western Cities, leaving as follows:

LEAVE BALTIMORE.
Mail Train, 8.45, A. M.
Fast Line, 5.30, P. M.
Express train, 9.45, P. M.

LEAVE WASHINGTON CITY.
Mail Train, 7.45, A. M.
Fast Line 4.30, P. M.
Express Train, 8.45, P. M.

The advantages of this line over all others in Palace State Room Day and Night Cars, Saving in Time and distance, and so few changes of Cars combine to render this the most pleasant and desirable Route, especially to Families, or Ladies Travelling Alone. There being but ONE change of Cars between Baltimore, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and but TWO to St. Louis, Cairo, Chicago and the principal Cities West and South.

From Nine to ten Dollars will be saved by purchasing through tickets, besides a great deal of annoyance at Points where Cars and Baggage are changed, whereas Passengers, holding through tickets will get their Baggage checked through, and all transfers of Passengers and Baggage are made without any additional expense to the Passenger except the cost of through tickets. Passengers on through tickets can stop at any point on the route, as through tickets are good until used.

Passengers leaving Raleigh, Saturday morning, will not be detained at Baltimore or Washington on Sunday; they will take the Fast Line for the West in the afternoon.

LARGE PARTIES and FAMILIES, wishing to emigrate to the Western and South Western States, should address me, several weeks before starting, as a reduction will be made to Parties of ten full Passengers and upwards, if timely notice is given, besides receiving all further information.

PATENT IMPROVED METHOD OF SINKING WELLS, OR THE NEW LABOR SAVING ECONOMICAL PUMPS.

HAVING PURCHASED THE ENTIRE AND exclusive right to the patent improved method of sinking Wells, for the State of North Carolina, we desire to have a good and reliable Agent in every county of the State.

As it is desirable for every family to have an abundant supply of water, on their own premises, for convenience, safety and economy, the sale of this Pump offers a fine opening for an enterprising man in each county, to engage in profitable business.

OUR PRICES ARE FOR No. 1 SIZE, $25; No. 2, $30,

WITH A LIBERAL DISCOUNT TO AGENTS.

We have a No. 2 Pump in operation in front of our Store, No. 22, Pollock Street, which was sunk in an hour, and supplies about 3,000 GALLONS of pure water per day. They can also be seen in operation at the Gaston House, and at other places in Newbern; also at Kinston Beaufort Morehead city, and at many other places.

This is the cheapest and most speedy mode of obtaining water in any section, as you can exclude any stream of water reached, which is not satisfactory, and obtain only that which is most desirable.

LET EVERY MAN REGISTER!

Let the Reconstruction scheme of Congress be fully and fairly tested. Let the country see and feel its effects, that the world may judge. We wish every white man and every colored man, entitled to registration, to be allowed to register. If Registrars have doubts, in the absence of positive information, when men insist upon registering, better let them take the responsibility of registering improperly, than to prevent one man entitled from doing so.—We hope Registrars will observe this plainly just and fair course.

The results of registration, in Virginia [illegible] saying or voting a white man's party. The majority of whites in Virginia, it appears, will be over 20,000.—If the white men in North Carolina do their duty, as well as the black men will, the white majority in North Carolina will be 40,000! Let every man, therefore, who can do so, register.

Many colored people are totally misled. Their pretended friends are deceiving them most wofully. These dark lantern Leagues, these secret political organizations, among the blacks, and among low down whites, will deceive and mislead them. They will soon, if they follow the leaders of the Leagues, want bread a great deal worse than votes. Let the colored people cease talking like fools and madmen, about ruling the whites of this land, and go to work. It is work, good work, skillful work, that will rule the land. Labor is power, and it is the power that will make the men that will rule the land. Mind what we say. Let the true men of North Carolina—the men upon whom the country must rely, to fill the offices of the land and rule the country, rally to the rescue and register.

CONFISCATION.

The Charlotte News, in an editorial the other day, strongly hinted that facts were developing the idea, that the threat of the confiscation of the lands of the Southern people was designed, by those in the secret, to frighten Southern land holders to sell their lands at ruinously low prices. The fact that Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, and other leading Radicals, are investing large sums in Southern lands, for mining and other purposes, and that Associations for the purchase of lands are investing in the South, gives strong color to it. The further fact that Gov. Andrew, of Massachusetts, a leading Radical, is President of a large Land Association, and that large investments in lands are being made by it, also, favors the idea.

Be this as it may, it is certain that there are not wanting thousands in the Radical party, who do not ask whether a thing is Constitutional or right or wrong, but whether it will help the party or do the South injury to do it, to carry it at once, especially if provoked to it. It is, therefore, best that the Southern people give no occasion to the committal of such wholesale robbery upon them as confiscation would be, unless adherence to right and truth and honor provoke it. Then, come what will, let us be true.

But we still cling to the advice we have all along given our people. Sell your surplus lands to actual settlers at reasonable prices. The more persons you can persuade to become land-owners and settlers among us, whether respectable whites or blacks, the better for the safety, the peace and prosperity of the country. Reduce the size of your farms, bring them within your own means to cultivate, and sell them to those who can cultivate them, that the country may be occupied, the land more skillfully tilled and the general prosperity promoted.

ABUSES OF REGISTRATION.—A correspondent, writing us from Forsythe, gives an indignant account of the shameful manner in which Registration has been conducted in certain parts of that County. He says:

"The applicant would walk in, and the Chairman of the Board would, swear him first, before asking a question, and have the applicant to kiss the Bible, and sign his name to the oath. Then the Chairman would say thus: Any questions to ask, gentlemen? One or both of those selected would then ask: "Have you ever held an office?" "No." "Were you a volunteer at the beginning of the war?" "No." "Well, how were your feelings during the war?" "Well, I hardly know how to answer."—"When you heard of a big battle, which side were your feelings for, the South or North?"

Then some low down mean character, outside, would, on some occasions, ask the applicant if he was not a member of the Home Guard, at the the beginning of the war, and then run about the crowd and say such and such men perjured themselves! All this and much more was allowed, admitted and done!"

Now all this is simply infamous, and we thus publicly call the attention of the military authorities to the matter. The public will not be surprised to learn, after such an exhibit, that the two challengers selected were deserters during the war, who fled their homes, went through the lines and only returned after the surrender. Pretty fellows to talk about "perjury!"

But we publish the foregoing, not on account of its reference to Forsythe, alone. We have heard of very singular conduct, to say the least, on the part of Registrars elsewhere, in discouraging or preventing men from registering. We say let every man white or black, register that is entitled to do so. If he is challenged, but is willing, nevertheless, to take the oath, let him do so, and let the fact of challenge, with the reasons therefor, be fully noted for the inspection of the Commanding General.

IMPORTANT DECISION BY JUDGE FOWLE.

We learn, from the Register, that Judge Fowle decided, at the late term of Martin Superior Court, that colored men, having the qualifications prescribed by statute, are eligible, under the existing laws of the State, to sit on juries, now that slavery is abolished. The following is an abstract of the ruling:

At Martin Superior Court, before his Honor Judge Fowle, as the grand jury were about to be drawn, Henry A Gilliam, Esq., acting for the Attorney General, challenged the array, upon the ground that the jury had not been drawn by the County Court, at its regular term, as required by law.

The challenge was allowed by the Court, the venire discharged, and the Sheriff directed to proceed forthwith under section 27th, chapter 31st, Revised Code, to obtain a jury. Whereupon, the Sheriff, the Clerk of the County Court, and the three Justices of the Peace, who had been selected to assist in drawing the jury, requested the Court to instruct them as to their duty in regard to placing persons of color on the venire, whose names had been placed in the jury box by the County Court.

His Honor charged them, that in order to constitute a proper jury according to our laws, it is necessary, first, that the jurors should be men of ordinary intelligence; second, of good character; third, freeholders.

people had been divided into three classes. 1st, white men; 2nd, free persons of color; 3rd, slaves.

That the third class were excluded from the jury box because they were slaves.

That the second class were excluded because, under the theory of slavery, every person of color was prima facie a slave, and that as, every freeman was entitled to be tried by his peers, the free person of color, against whom the law raised the presumption of slavery, was not regarded as the legal peer of the white man. That the constitution and laws of the State never, by express enactment, excluded a colored man from serving on the jury, when he possessed the qualifications required, and that his exclusion was owing to this construction, as to the legal peers, and this construction was the necessary result of the institution of slavery.

This is so, else Henderson, Gaston and the other fathers of the law in North Carolina, excluded for a long series of years free persons of color from the jury box, through mere inattention or omission, which is not for a moment to be considered.

In 1865, the Convention of North Carolina abolished the institution of slavery, and all men were declared freemen. It followed as a necessary sequence, that, as soon as the institution (out of which this construction grew) was abolished, when there were no words of exclusion in the constitution or laws, free persons of color became entitled to all the rights which were incident to free men. One of these rights was to serve upon juries, when properly qualified.

The colored man, therefore, is entitled to have his name placed upon the jury lists, whenever he possesses the qualifications required by law, and you will be sustained by the law, in summoning jurors, who are freeholders, regardless of color.

We learn, from the Norfolk Journal, that when the new jury was drawn, three colored men were found on it. The first case decided by them was the State vs. Warren Lilly, colored, for larceny. The fact that the accused had stolen a quantity of fodder having been fully established, the jury retired and then immediately brought in a verdict of "guilty," the three colored jurors being as prompt in their decision as the whites.

"Colored jurors (the Journal adds) are now recognized by the laws of the Old North State, and in this respect she may be said to be thoroughly "reconstructed!"

GEN. GRANT, as soon as he takes off his uniform and enters the political arena, exhibits as much inconsistency as one of the "old stagers." In his recent letter to the President, protesting against the removal of Sheridan, (which letter is generally regarded as a bid for the Radical nomination for the Presidency,) he speaks of "those in the South who did all they could to break up this Government by arms, and now wish to be the only element consulted as to the method of restoring order."

In his report to the President, of Dec. 18, 1865, giving the result of his investigations on his Southern tour, he said:

"I am satisfied that the mass of thinking men of the South except the present situation of affairs in good faith. The questions which have heretofore divided the sentiments of the people of the two sections—slavery and State rights—or the right of a State to secede from the Union—they regard as having been settled forever by the highest tribunal—arms—that men can resort to. I was pleased to learn from the leading men whom I met, that they not only accepted the decision arrived at as final, but that now the smoke of battle has cleared away, and time has been given for reflection, that this decision has been a fortunate one for the whole country, they receiving the like benefits from it with those who opposed them in the field and in the cause."

THE "FAITHFUL" in this State are very much divided upon the subject of Gen. Sickles' removal. The Wilmington Post and Newbern Republican are very indignant thereat, while the Register, of this City, justifies and approves the course of the President.

UNIVERSAL AMNESTY—ALAMANCE COUNTY.

On the 27th. inst., the Hon. R. Y. McAden addressed a large assembly of the citizens of Alamance County, in Graham, on the condition of the country and the duties of the citizens. He strongly urged all qualified to register, and in the approaching election to vote for a Convention. During the delivery of his speech, when he was urging the necessity and propriety of universal amnesty, he put the question to the colored men present (some two hundred) whether or not they desired that all white men should be allowed to vote, and every colored man voted in the affirmative by raising his hand. The question was then put to the whites whether or not they were willing to give to the colored man every right given to him by the act of Congress, and every white man voted in the affirmative.—The scene will be long remembered. The people in this County are nearly all registering, and the best of feeling prevails. Alamance will send good delegates to the Convention.

RAIL ROAD MEETING.

Pursuant to a previous notice, there was a meeting held at Palmyra, Halifax county, N. C., for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of the extension of the Tarboro Branch of the Wilmington & Weldon Rail Road to Hill's Ferry.

On motion, Mr. Henry R. Whitmore, of Halifax county, was called to the chair.

Maj. William L. Broadie, of Bertie county, was requested to act as Secretary.

The Chairman having briefly stated the object of the meeting,

Mr. Thos. Jones, of Martin County, being present, was called upon to address the meeting. He did so in a very able and graphic manner, giving a lucid description of the situation of the country, showing the many advantages to be derived from the Road. He stated that the Road would pass through a very level country where there would be no grading or trestle-work. The lands over which it would pass are well set with the finest kind of timber, suitable for building the road, which the owners propose to give for the benefit which they expect to derive from the Road. The distance, by a recent partial survey, would not much exceed ten miles, if at all.

If there is a connection made in the Tarboro' branch, there would be no need of any additional rolling stock, as the present trains on the Tarboro' road would be amply sufficient to answer every purpose. It would not require more than thirty minutes for the train to run from the present terminus Ferry, and not more than one hour and a half from Rocky Mount to Hill's Ferry. It would be no inconvenience to the Tarboro road to run the train through to Hill's Ferry, as it would be lying idle in Tarboro. It would add materially to the interest of the Tarboro' road, by making it joint stock property, as a large portion of the produce from the interior of the State would find its way to Norfolk through this channel.

Norfolk is destined to be one of the great emporiums of the South. She has one of the finest harbors in the world. The largest ships of the line can float with perfect safety upon the bosom of her bay.—She has remained dormant for over half a century, but is now becoming aroused to the sense of her interests, having established a line of steamers to run regularly every month to Liverpool, and, as a matter of course, will not only be the great mart for our products, but will soon be a large importing port, where our merchants can supply themselves with all such goods, wares and merchandise, as may be needed for our supplies, without having to go to the city of New York, and incurring all the trouble and incidental expenses which necessarily accrue in the way of travel, freights, insurance, re-shipping, &c.

Mr. Jones read a letter to the meeting from Hon. William L. Oswald, of Norfolk, Va., in which he agrees to render all the assistance in his power to expedite the matter, and place upon the route as many steamers and barges as may be required, at his own expense. The steamers will leave regularly on arrival of the trains, touching at Hamilton, Williamston, Jamesville, Plymouth, and Edenton. The barges will leave, as soon as they can be loaded, for Norfolk. Therefore, our produce, as soon as put upon the barges, will go immediately through to Norfolk, without any re-shipping or delay. We are all well aware of the great damage our cotton receives by lying on the Railroad or river, being handled so often, exposed to the weather, and the necessary expenses of putting it into merchantable order. His impression was that, by the present charter of the Tarboro' road, they can extend it to Hill's Ferry.—But if they cannot, application should be made immediately to our State Legislature, when it meets, for an extension of the charter. By the extension of the road and establishing a line of steamers, it would materially enhance the interest of the farmers on either side of Roanoke river. The cost of the road would not, in his opinion, much exceed fifty thousand dollars, which amount he thinks can be easily raised by those directly interested in it.

It is to be hoped that Norfolk will take liberally the stock, as those who do so may expect a liberal patronage from this section of country. He cannot conceive how the President of the Tarboro' road should have been so blind to his own interest, and that of the Stockholders, as not to have urged the extension before now. The road, at present, terminates in the interior of the country, without any outlet at its terminus. He is satisfied that there is no road in this or any other State of this Union, extending the same distance, at so little cost, that has more promoted the interest of the people of the surrounding country than this would. He is satisfied that the movers of this enterprise are not actuated by any disposition to prejudice any other road, for the more roads we have passing through the country, the better for the people.

After closing his remarks, on motion of Mr. L. L. Savage, a Committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions, expressive of the sense of the meeting.

The chair thereupon proceeded to appoint the following gentlemen, viz:

Mr. Thos. Jones, of Martin County; Mr. A. P. Hyman, Halifax; Mr. G. H. Gregory, Martin; Mr. L. L. Savage, Halifax; Mr. Chas. C. Sheild, Halifax.

After retiring a few moments, the Committee returned and made the following report:

WHEREAS, We, the citizens of Palmyra and its vicinity, deem it highly important for the promotion of our own interest, and that of the people of the surrounding country, that there should be an extension of the Tarboro road from its present terminus to Hill's Ferry: Therefore, be it

Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed to wait upon Mr. R. R. Bridgers, the President of the Tarboro' road, and know whether such a project will meet his approbation, and whether the road can be extended under the present charter.

Resolved, That if the project meets with his approbation, and the extension of the road cannot be made under the present charter, a meeting be held at this place for the purpose of appointing a Committee to draft a petition to our State Legislature praying a charter for the extension of the road.

Resolved, That this project is not for the purpose of conflicting with any other road, but that we firmly believe that no road in the country of the same distance and cost would redound so much to the interest of the people as this would.

On motion of Mr. John L. Baker,

Resolved, That a standing committee of five be appointed to wait upon Mr. Bridgers and also receive any communication in regard to this enterprise, and to call another meeting at such time as they may deem expedient.

The chair proceeded to appoint the following gentlemen as the committee, viz:

Mr. Thomas Jones, of Martin county; Maj. William L. Broadie, of Bertie; Messrs. Kenneth Thigpen, Edgecombe; L. L. Savage, and John L. Baker, Halifax.

On motion of Mr. Samuel Hyman, sr., the name of the chairman was added to the committee.

On motion of Mr. William R. Leggett, sr., a resolution of thanks was passed by the meeting, tendering their thanks to Hon. Wm. L. Oswald, of Norfolk, for his very liberal offer to aid us in carrying into effect this great enterprise.

On motion of Mr. A. P. Hyman, the meeting adjourned to meet at this place, at such time as the committee may think advisable.

BEAUFORT, Aug. 30.

RADICAL NOMINEES FOR THE CONVENTION.

It seems to be accepted as a foregone conclusion in this section that we are to have a State Convention. Although the registration has been only partially completed—and, by the way, great complaint is made against the Board in the Eastern precinct for their tardiness—some three or more candidates are already in the field, and, doubtless, more to follow. Among the foremost aspirants for the honor, or probably the dishonor of framing our next Constitution, are Messrs. Allen, Moore, and Congleton, all of Beaufort.

Allen came with the war and a stock of Yankee notions. He uses the word "Rebel" fluently and is recognised as Mayor by all who have the fear of Gen. Sickles in their eyes,—it being so nominated in his bond.

Moore, also, came with the war, and brought a negro regiment with him. Subsequently, he became a shop keeper, and by dint of perseverance and hard work succeded in amassing an indebtedness of a very imposing amount—to those interest-now one of our City Commissioners. [illegible] This is the Congleton is native, but not "to the manner born," or if so sadly brought up. He began his career in the pulpit, but for reasons unknown to us, became a backslider, and made so dexterous a slide that in the estimation of the community he could'nt get any lower. This was found to be a mistake, however, when during the war he turned scout and piloted a Federal force to pillage his old congregation. He is now the leading Radical in this community, and has so far distanced his competitors as to have received the nomination as candidate to the Convention. We have it from a trustworthy source that at a recent meeting of the Loyal League in Beaufort, it was decided that Congleton should be put forward as the representative of the party. It occurs to us that they may be a minute, a minute and a half, or two minutes too fast. We suggest the propriety of deciding whether we are to have a Convention or no, before we toss up for delegates.

Nevertheless, since people are talking about it, popular opinion seems to have come to the conclusion that either Dr. L. W. Martin, or Mr. James Rumley, shall represent Carteret county in any Convention that may be held.

Registration returns come in slowly, but show a gain in favor of the whites. White Oak precinct—whites 75, blacks 48.—Smyrna precinct—whites 150, blacks 10.

It is unfortunate that the work should commence at this time. It is the fishing season and some two hundred whites are absent from the County at the fisheries.—Much to the credit of our citizens, we notice that a fisherman rarely comes in who is not immediately urged to register. This is as it should be. Unless every true son of the good Old North State takes it upon himself personally to look after her honor, we shall fall into the hands of the Philistines, and subsequently go to the devil at a hard gallop.

THE SEASON.

As the season advances and the hot weather ditto, visitors begin to come in quite rapidly, and society brightens up with every train arrival. Last week we had a bouquet of beauty from the City of Oaks.—Your correspondent, who is considered, and we say it without affectation, a bold, very bold man at the dinner table, was made aware that the transition from a man of nerve to a nerveless man is just about the quickest change the human heart is susceptible to. But we hurl back with indignation the libel that we were seen practicing attitudes before a mirror a few days subsequent to the arrival aforesaid. By the way, what is the price of board in Raleigh?

R. A. S.

The New Orleans Picayune thinks that the removal of Sheridan will not affect in a perceptible degree the condition or prospects of Louisiana in the matter of reconstruction. "The play will go on," says the Picayune, "notwithstanding there has been a new cast of the parts."

Thaddeus Stevens has nearly recovered his health, and has written a letter in which he says that there is no law to prohibit the removal of District commanders without the consent of the Senate. He claims that conservatism, as defined by some Senators, is worse than copperheadism.

A writer in the New York Express predicts that next winter will be a steady cold season, and not an open winter, because the bees have stored but a small amount of honey.

At a negro suffrage meeting in Trenton last week, a colored preacher, who was the principal orator, wound up his speech with a prayer for President Johnson's conversion.

DIED:

ROSCOE RICHARDS, son of Capt. Henry and Eliza Richards, of Hillsboro', died at Trenton, in Jones County, on the 21st inst., in the 24th year of his age, after a short but painful illness.

Roscoe Richards early espoused the cause of Southern Independence, and at the breaking out of the war went with his Company, the Orange Guards, (Co. G. 27th Regt. N. C. T.,) and was with that famous Regiment in all its engagements during the war. As a soldier, (his officers say,) "there was none better or braver;" he shrank from no duty, however arduous, flinched from no danger, however imminent; he was always ready when duty called him to the thickest and hardest of the fight.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD

AND

NORTH CAROLINA

GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths [illegible] This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the S. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go on Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads, composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, viz our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE

Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five Steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia, by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

All losses, damages, or overcharges promptly adjusted on application to

JAS. McCARRICK,
Trace Agent, Portsmouth, Va.

Have your freight marked Via Portsmouth, Va., and in shipping to Philadelphia, marked Via Clyde's Line, or Via Annamessic.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement, and MORE. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.
W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.
THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press, rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.
D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.
J. R. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a screw.
PETER E. SMITH,

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. R. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.
RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 8 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Tant Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge $25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

RAILROADS.

NORTH CAROLINA

ALL STATE

RAILWAY LINES

FROM CHARLOTTE AND ALL POINTS ON THE N. C. AND ITS CONNECTING RAIL ROADS TO THE SEABOARD AT WILMINGTON, N. C. OR NORFOLK, VA., via GOLDSBORO';

ALSO VIA PETERSBURG AND CITY POINT.

The Railways composing this all STATE RAILWAY line have recently agreed to unite in a route to all the Northern markets on equal terms and charges viz our own ports, or by way of Norfolk or Petersburg Va., to and from the North.

GREAT THROUGH AIR LINE

No discrimination in favor of any place or city, only so far as to carry the great products of the State as well as return merchandise over the Railway lines largely owned by the State.

This arrangement, while it gives as great facilities and as cheap rates as by any other line, will add to paying something into the State Treasury and into the common school fund, by which taxes will be lightened and the poor children educated. These are some of the reasons for a change of route to pass by Goldsboro.

The N. C. R. R., the Wil. & Weldon R. R., and the Seaboard and Roanoke Rail Road Companies, have agreed that all goods, not otherwise specially directed, shall pass by way of Goldsboro, for Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, at the same rates and in the same time that they can be carried by any other route.

This has been arranged and freight trains now run in close connection from Portsmouth to Charlotte.

CARS RUN THROUGH WITHOUT BREAKING BULK.

☞ Be careful in shipping from New York to ship by old Dominion Steamship Co., 197 Greenwich Street, or Pier 37, North River.

By old Bay line from Baltimore

By Clyde's Steamers or Annemessic Railway, Philadelphia.

By E. Sampson & Co. Steamers, Central Wharf, Boston.

☞ See that no special direction is given to your goods by any Railway—not mentioned here.

THE MILITARY COMMISSION.

UNITED STATES VS. TOLAR, POWERS AND WATKINS.

THURSDAY, Aug. 29, 1867.

Wm. J. McPhail, sworn:—Live in Fayetteville. Has known John Armstrong (witness for prosecution) since he was a boy; has lived within three or four miles of him; knows his general character for truth and veracity. It is bad. Has heard many persons say so.

Cross Examined:—Is not related to any of the parties on trial. Thinks that John Armstrong is about thirty or thirty five years of age. He has had a bad character ever since he was grown.

A. K. McKay, sworn:—Live five miles this side of Fayetteville. Knows John Armstrong; thinks he is about thirty or thirty-three; has lived two or three miles from him. Knows his general character for truth; it is bad.

Cross Examined:—Is a farmer. Understands by "general character," what the neighborhood say about him. Have heard that he was a drinking man, that he was dishonest and that he was a liar; have heard dozens speak of him and all agree in this.

Dilly Stewart, (negro,) sworn:—Have been living in and about Fayetteville for the last thirty years. Knew Bebee; was at the market-house as a witness in his case, the day he was killed; went up in the room where he was tried; came down about fifteen minutes before Bebee. Stopped at a stove near the steps to warm; was there when Bebee came down. Was sitting near the bench, near Becky Ben's stall, and no one jumped up on the bench and cried out "watch out, boys," or anything else. As Bebee went out on the pavement, two little white men stopped him and somebody cried out 'shoot him." Witness then heard a pistol fire.

The crowd in the market house, when Bebee came down, was very quiet. After the shot, witness heard no cries of who shot him.

Cross-Examined: Was sitting at the stove when Bebee came down; it was cold and windy. When Bebee went out on the pavement, witness heard cries of "hold him," "hold him," and some one said, "shoot him." Did not see a knife or pistol there that day.

Were two or three hundred persons present. Did not see anybody jump up on the bench, near Becky Ben's stall, at any time, nor hear any exclamations.

Wiley Smith, or Wright, (negro) sworn:—Lives about three miles from Fayetteville. Knew Bebee. Was at the market house the day Bebee was killed. Drove Mrs Massie there in a Rockaway; stopped the carriage about ten feet from the pavement on the east side of the market house. Mr. Bond drove Miss Massie there in a buggy; then came and took Mrs. Massie and carried her up stairs. There was quite a large crowd there that day.

Witness don't remember seeing any of the prisoners there. Did not hear any threats; saw no whisperings; saw no signs of excitement.

After the ladies got into the carriage to go back, there was no whispering with any body at the carriage; some men spoke to the ladies, but it was in an ordinary tone of voice. Witness only recollects the names of Mr Taylor and Mr. Bond. Witness drove the ladies off and came back in about twenty-five minutes and found Bebee dead.

Cross Examined: Mr. Bond drove Miss Massie in a buggy and witness drove Mrs. Massie in a Rockaway, and both got to the market house at the same time. Witness drove both the ladies back in his Rockaway. As soon as the ladies got in he drove off.

Philemon Taylor, sworn: Live in Fayetteville. Am a merchant; place of business N. E. corner of Market Square. Was standing in store door when Miss Massie and mother were getting up in the carriage. Mr. Bond was with them. Witness went to the carriage about as soon as the ladies were seated. Saw Tom Powers standing within two or three feet of the carriage; did not hear him talk to the ladies. Maltby came up and spoke to Bond. Witness did not see Capt. Tolar come to the carriage; don't think he did. Mr. Cashwell went to the carriage with witness.

Did not hear or see any whispering at the carriage. Heard Bond order the carriage off and the driver drove off. The carriage left about one minute after the ladies got in; it drove down Person street. Witness then went back to his store and stood in his front door and looked towards the market house. Saw Bebee brought down stairs. Witness noticed nothing unusual until Bebee got on the side-walk; then saw commotion in the crowd which continued until Bebee was killed. Witness saw the flash and smoke; it was very near to Bebee and about the edge of the side-walk. Don't know who fired it. The crowd was very dense. From the spot where the pistol fired, to the centre of the main Eastern arch, was about ten or twelve feet; the crowd was thick between. The crowd increased very fast after the pistol fired. Saw nothing before Bebee was killed that led witness to expect it.—Know of no compact or agreement to injure him. After the pistol fired, there was a perfect calm; no hurrahs for Capt. Tolar or anything of the kind. Not kin to Capt. Tolar; both Baptists.

Cross-Examined: Can't say there is any relationship between Capt. Tolar and Miss Massie; if so, it is very distant. Witness' store is opposite to I. B. Davis' store; the street is about eighty feet wide. Did not see the ladies until they were getting in the carriage. Did not see any buggy there. If witness lost sight of the carriage, from the time the ladies got in until it drove off, it was but a moment. Tom Powers was standing by the carriage when witness went up; thinks that Mr. Cashwell was the only gentleman that talked with the ladies. Did not see where Bond, Maltsby or Tom Powers went to. Cashwell did not go back to the store with witness.

As Bebee was coming out the arch, witness thinks that he heard some one say "halt!" Saw no assault made upon him; saw no weapons of any kind in any body's hands that day.

Court adjourned to Friday, 10 o'clock, A. M.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Notice to Shippers of Freight.—The Seaboard Inland Air Line, via Portsmouth, Va.: E. G. Ghio, Superintendent of Transportation. This superb line offers the highest inducements, and we need only direct attention to its summary of advantages.

Atlantic & N. C. R. R. and N. C. Grand Trunk Railroad: J. V. Jordan, Freight Agent, Newbern, N. C. This is emphatically the age of Railroad competition, and this great line, under efficient management, is fully up to all the requirements of the times. See announcement.

We direct special attention to the advertisement of Godwin's Cheap Cotton Press, to which we have frequently alluded in these columns.

Wanted a good male Teacher to take charge of the Male and Female Department of Hertford Academy: Apply to D. P. Daughtrey, Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

New Labor Saving Economical Pump: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

A lot of suitable goods for the Fall trade: S. H. & W. J. Young, Fayetteville Street.

Notice to Tax-Payers: James Litchford, City Collector.

Flour, Sugar, Starch, Herrings, &c.,—an attractive variety: Douglas Bell, Market Square.

Our friend Perry, of the firm of Jenkins & Perry, with his well-known energy, proposes to supply the market with Fish and Oysters, as soon as the weather permits.—He will receive a barrel of Spots on ice, this evening. On the brick row, nearly opposite the Market House, is the "spot."

MAYOR'S COURT.—Betty Rorke, colored, for Larceny, was returned to the County Court.

Bill Green, colored, for Gaming, was fined $5.

C. Harrison, colored, for an assault on Nathan Parks, colored, was fined $5.

TABLEAUX AT TUCKER HALL.—We are assured that the most ample and attractive arrangements have been made to render the entertainment, to be given at Tucker Hall, on Monday evening, by the Baptist Tableaux Association, a complete success and an agreeable occasion. It will be largely attended, doubtless. Tickets may be obtained at the Book stores or at the office of Messrs. John G. Williams & Co.

OUR RAILROADS.—We believe we have never seen our Railroads managed with more energy than now. The North Carolina Road seems to have waked up. Mr. Turner and Mr. Anderson on that Road appear to have stopped putting on brakes, and are driving ahead. Mr. Bridgers and Col. Fremont are up to time on the Wilmington Road, and Col. Whitford, of the Atlantic, is determined not to be outflanked. The old Raleigh and Gaston Railroad has never been behind yet. If they beat Dr. Hawkins, they must rise early, that's all. The Seaboard and Petersburg Railroads are fully in the race. They are determined to make our Roads good feeders if they can. Well let them all go ahead, at lightning speed, if they choose, if it's safe. Competition is the life of trade. Take care of yourselves, but don't forget the people. The people must have the track open. Clear the way for the farmers and the merchants. They must have a free choice of markets, by the safest, the quickest and the best routes.

We are for that, and yet we bid all the Roads God speed. All things being equal, we are first for our North Carolina Roads and for our North Carolina sea ports, so the people are not harmed; but, next to ourselves, we are for our Virginia neighbors. Petersburg and Norfolk have strong claims upon us. Not so strong as Newbern and Morehead City and Wilmington, but nevertheless strong, as long as they make it to the interest of our people to go in that direction.

Pecuniarily, the people of Raleigh have more at stake in the old Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road, than in all others. Her employees go very far towards sustaining the business of the City. The people of Raleigh will, therefore, be expected to stand by her, and they certainly will. It is right that they should. Indeed, in the busy, anxious rush now for trade and business, all our Roads will do well, if they are well managed; and our people every where will rejoice at it. Success to the Roads, we say, and to all our people.

THE "Republican" Convention meets in this City on Wednesday next, 4th. Sept. From present appearances, it promises to be anything but a harmonious assemblage. We shall see.

REV. J. B. SOLOMON has vacated the Editorial chair of the Warrenton Courier,—a post which he filled with ability. Walter A. Montgomery, Esq., succeeds him, and is commended by the retiring Editor as a young gentleman of fine talents. We wish him success.

REV. S. D. UMSTED, a local preacher residing in Orange county, died on the 13th inst. Mr. Umsted was in the last Legislature, and made a practical and useful member He was, in all the relations of life, public and private, a most worthy man.

GEORGIA NEWS.

AUGUSTA, Aug 30. P. M.

The Chronicle and Sentinel asserts, on the authority of a member of the board of registers, that private instructions have been issued that no freedmen will be permitted to take seats in the approaching State Convention.

Gen. Pope having been written to, to know whether there was any truth in the report that he intended issuing an order staying the collection of debts, replies:

"That no conceivable circumstances could induce me to interfere with the general business of the State, or the relations of debtor and creditor. The only orders issued, or to be issued, are such as are considered necessary to the execution of the reconstruction acts, which do not warrant violent changes in the ordinary course of business. The people must look for relief to the State Convention.

I do not consider such matters within my province to adjust."

Gov. Orr delivered a speech at Belton, S. C., today in which he advised the people to register and vote for a Convention, being satisfied that the attitude of the negro, in the Convention and Legislature, will produce a wonderful re-action in favor of the South throughout the North.

THE REVELATIONS OF PROPHECY.—In 1842, Henry Clay, who led the Whig hosts in the great campaign of 1844, made the following prophecy:

The agitation of slavery in the free States will—

1st. Destroy all harmony;
2d. Lead to division;
3d. To Poverty;
4th. To war;
5th. The extermination of the black race;
6th. To ultimate military despotism.

THE LAW'S DELAYS.—We are likely to have no more complaints of this class during the administration of Gen. Pope. The people will never consent to submit their rights to ignorant negro juries, and the effect of the order will be to keep all new cases out of court and refer those on docket to arbitration or the decision on the Bench. —Savannah News.

It is charged that General Howard desires to make the Freedmen's Bureau a permanent institution, and that he is seeking through Congress to perpetuate it beyond the time fixed by the act creating it. A misappropriation of the funds is also alleged against him.

When the President's aid waited upon General Grant with the order assigning that chieftain to the war office he was at his headquarters, smoking. He read the order, looked at the officer, and made a speech.—He said, "Very well."

NEWS BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

THE PRESIDENT AND GEN. GRANT

WASHINGTON, August 29.

The statement appended to the World's special to-day—the dispatch from the agent of the Associated Press—puts the tenor of Gen. Grant's letter to the President, protesting against the order assigning Gen. Hancock to Sheridan's place, too strong. Grant did not refuse, as stated there, to execute the order yesterday, nor has he refused to-day, though he writes very plainly that he considers that the "second, third and fourth sections of the second supplemental Reconstruction act give him the power to exercise supervisory control of all the orders and acts of the commanders of military districts." He does not assume, as the paragraph in question would lead one to believe, to say who shall be ordered to the command of the Fifth Military District, and that he has refused to execute the presidential order sending Hancock there. The first difference between the President and General Grant is, that the latter denies the right of the Executive to direct General Hancock as to his official course, and it is, after all, a question of the construction of language, for the President, in the order, simply says that Major General Hancock will proceed directly to New Orleans, La., and, assuming the command to which he is assigned, will, when necessary to a faithful execution of the laws, exercise any and all powers conferred by acts of Congress upon district commanders, "and any and all authority pertaining to officers in command of military departments." As it omits paragraph five of Grant's first order, which assigned Thomas to the command, which required the latter to continue in force all of Sheridan's acts, it is held by General Grant that this virtually amounts to a Presidential revocation of his (Grant's) order approving of Sheridan's orders, and directing that his successor should continue them in force. The President holds that he has the right to issue the order as given, and he will stand by it. General Grant discussed the difference between them to-day for an hour.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald,

[As Gen. Grant has since issued the order, relieving Sheridan, minus the paragraph directing Gen. Hancock to continue in force all of Sheridan's orders, the presumption is that he yielded the point.]

CABINET TROUBLES ADJUSTED—FINANCIAL APPREHENSIONS SET AT REST

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—There are no Cabinet rumors to-day, and no prospect of an immediate retirement of any of its members. The relations of all of them with the President continue of an agreeable character. It seems to be settled that Secretary McCulloch will continue in office for financial reasons, if for no other, as it has been represented by gentlemen of different political views that his resignation would disastrously affect the public securities both home and abroad.

Corroborative evidence is furnished today that Gen. Grant yesterday sent to the President a decidedly firm letter against the removal of Gens. Sheridan and Sickles. The differences were known to be so wide between the President and Gen. Grant that prominent gentlemen supposed them to be irreconcilable, and that the retirement of the General from the War Department was inevitable, but this afternoon General Grant and the President had an interview at the Executive mansion which resulted in the adjustment of the trouble.

Financial men in Northern cities were so much interested in the announcement in the morning papers, that numerous telegrams were sent hither by them inquiring into the truth of the published statements, but it was not until after the interview herein alluded to that responses were made to the effect that there was no trouble.

WE feel authorized to state that the reports of any personal differences between the President and General Grant are unfounded. Whatever may be their respective views as to matters of detail, there is no conflict between them as to the prerogatives of each.—Nat. Intel. 29th.

GENERAL SICKLES.—A New York correspondent says: "It is said that General Sickles will decline to be transferred to another field of military usefulness, but will return to New York to follow the practice of law."

A REMARKABLE DISCLOSURE.

The following extracts from a private letter to a citizen of Edgefield, written from Chesterfield District, S. C., gives an alarming state of affairs in that section:

"Have you a society over your way called the Union League or Red String? I do not know whether they are the same or not, but I have heard both names. I learn that the Red Strings, as they call themselves, are taking a strong hold in North Carolina. They had a large meeting last week at Wadesboro. Some two or three thousand negroes attended. I hear, also, that a good many whites in the upper part of this District have joined, and I suppose negroes also. I have not heard of a respectable white man belonging to them. The negroes in this neighborhood had a private meeting at the Court House (I mean at the village) last Saturday. They would not admit any white man. They are to have another next Saturday. What the object of the meeting is we do not know, but I suppose it is, of course, in opposition to the whites of the South. The negroes at heart are very unfriendly to the whites.

They are forming companies and electing officers, and as soon as they get through with their crops will commence drilling. Some living near me (on Evans' plantation) have been heard to say that they were ready at any moment to take up arms—that the Yankees need not fight the Rebs again, for, if they would give the negroes guns, they would do the fighting. My son heard this from negroes that I know, and also I know that they had the very kindest masters while slaves, and never wanted for anything. These very negroes have always been thought a great deal of by the whites, and treated with a great deal of respect. If they talk so, what have we to expect from others?"

A Dayton man concocted a new advertising scheme the other day. He sent a silk balloon several hundred feet in the air, when a patent fuse exploded a large bag full of circulars, and they came fluttering down to all parts of the city.

FINE LANDS FOR SALE.

A Good Chance for Emigrants.

THE UNDERSIGNED, AND D. G. WORTH and N. G. DANIEL, of Wilmington, N. C., will sell a Tract of Land, in Horry District, S. C., some 25 miles South of Whiteville, at $3 per acre.

The Tract contains

ABOUT 3,200 ACRES.

About 700 acres of it was a swamp, through which a leading ditch has been cut, and about 150 acres of it put in cultivation years ago. Two straight parallel ditches, about 20 feet apart, about a mile long, making a good road between them, were cut, striking the leading ditch at about right angles; and on either side of these ditches the cultivated portion lies, divided into parallelograms by other ditches. The residue of the Swamp is covered by the natural forest, among which are White Oak, suitable for Staves, Poplar, Ash, Beech, Cypress and other valuable timber.

There is also another Swamp on the place, of about 250 acres, easily drained. Neither of them is subject to inundation. All of this Swamp Land is exceedingly fertile, as well that which is uncleared as that which has been cultivated and adapted to the production of unbroken crops of Corn and Cotton, as demonstrated by the actual culture of the portion cleared.

The surface of the uncleared portion is smooth, with very little undergrowth.

This Swamp Land is so fertile that it will produce the most exhausting crops for an unknown length of time, without the use of any fertilizer, and without material diminution of productiveness.

The residue of the Tract, say 2,500 acres, has on it a fine forest of suitable for producing Turpentine, Tar, and for Timber. Much of the pine has been boxed and chipped some four feet high.

LONG LEAF PINE,

All of this pine land is admirably suited to the growth of the

SCUPPERNONG GRAPE VINE,

and much of it is unsurpassed in its yield of the Sweet Potato, and is believed to be suited to the production of fine Wheat.

It has on it a

Two-Story Dwelling House,

with two brick chimneys, and rooms enough for a large family, and other out-houses. These buildings are substantial, though not very tastefully built.

Plenty of labor, at a reasonable price, can be had in the neighborhood.

This land is seven miles, by a good road, from the waters of the Waccamaw River; where the same is navigated by boats of 6 or 8 tons burthen; and some fifteen miles from Conwayboro', the head of Steamboat navigation on said river.

A very small part of the cleared land has been cultivated since the breaking out of the war; but may be put into cultivation with the inconsiderable expense of clearing out the ditches. A part of it is in cultivation this year, and its productiveness may be seen by any one wishing to buy.

WORTH & DANIEL, of Wilmington, N. C., will accompany to the place any person who may wish to treat for a purchase, or give a letter of introduction to some person who will point out the premises.

Dr. Jackson, of Whiteville, is well acquainted with the lands. JONATHAN WORTH.

THE SENTINEL.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1867.

LITTLE ROSE.

She comes with fairy footsteps—
softly their echoes fall—
And her shadow plays like summer shade
Across the garden wall.
The golden light is dancing bright
Mid the mazes of her hair,
And her fair young locks are waving free
To the wooing of the air.

Like a sporting fawn she bounds
So gleefully along;
As a wild young bird she carolleth
The burden of a song.
The summer flowers are clustering thick
Around her dancing feet,
And low they shrink the sunny locks
Is breathing soft and sweet.

The very sunbeams seem to linger
Above the holy head,
And the wild flowers at her coming
Their richest fragrance shed;
And oh! how lovely light and fragrance
Mingle in the life within;
Oh! how fondly do they nestle
Round the soul that knows no sin.

She comes—the spirit of our childhood
A thing of mortal birth,
Yet bearing still the breath of heaven,
To redeem her from the earth.
She comes in bright-robed innocence,
Unsullied by blot or blight,
And passeth by our wayward path,
A gleam of angel light.

Oh, blessed things are children!
The gifts of heavenly love;
They stand betwixt our world-hearts
And better things above;
They link us with the spirit world
By purity and truth,
And keep our hearts still fresh and young
With the presence of their youth.

THE CROSS.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher makes use of the following striking and beautiful passage in illustration of the Cross, and its claims for faith in it by the Christian world, not alone for its historic associations, but for its sanctifying influence upon the hearts and minds of the human race:

"The Cross has twined around it every association of dignity and beauty in the world. Not one other thing has received from the fertile minds and the all-fashioning hands of men of genius so many extrinsic beauties as the cross of Christ. Millions never hear of it without a throb, nor see it without a genuflection. It dawns upon the child in the cradle next to its own mother's face, and it is the last thing from which the light disappears when this child, in old age, is dying. The cross is now as universal and as beautiful to the associations and memories of men, as then it was rare, peculiar and odious. It is that which now to us is not only suggestive of fact in Christ's history, but it is also a memorial of two thousand years of history. Around that simple cross-wood the heart of the world has gathered for twenty centuries its stores of love and devotion."

HOW BILL GOT SHOT.

"Bill, don't you know dad don't allow you to buy shot?" asked a young urchin of a brother who was somewhat his senior, who was making a purchase of that article.

"You must never mind me, I'll thank you to attend to your own business, Mister Bob; don't care what dad allows; I'll buy what I please."

Little boy slightly agitated: "I'm going to tell dad," he said, rushing out of the store; ran down the street, and bounced into the room where the old man was quietly reading the morning paper.

"Dad, dad, Bill's went and got shot."

"Good Heavens!" cried the old man, dropping the paper in consternation, and bolting for the door. "Where is he?"

"Down to Thompson's store," responds Bob.

In his excitement, the old man forgot to move his reading specks, and in going down the steps misjudged the distance to the pavement, stepped off too soon, and came sprawling on all fours.

He gathered himself up, and started for the store. The pavement appeared to be about the level of his knees, consequently in his violent efforts to keep it under him, he cut a very ridiculous figure, and drew from the astonished by-standers such a roar as was never bestowed upon a single individual since the world began.

At length his tedious run was brought to a close by arriving at the store where Bill was stretched out taking it easy. The old man supposing him badly hurt, rushed frantically up to him exclaiming:

"William! William! where are you wounded?"

"What's the matter, dad? Are you crazy?" asked Bill, raising on his elbow, and casting a look of astonishment at the old man.

"Why, Robert said you'd got shot!"

"So I did—got half a pound of the best duck shot in the store."

The old man left amid noise enough to drown a thunder clap. As might be supposed, Bob got the flogging, and Bill didn't.

RECONSTRUCTION.—SUPPLEMENTAL BILL NO. 2.

PASSED AT THE JULY SESSION.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it is hereby declared to have been the true intent and meaning of the act of the second day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, entitled an act for the more efficient government of the rebel States, and of the act supplementary thereto, passed on the 24th day of March, in the year 1867, that the governments then existing in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and Arkansas were illegal and void, and thereafter the same governments, if continued, were to be continued subject in all respects to the military commanders of the respective Districts and to the authority of Congress.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That the commander of any district named in said act shall have power, subject to the approval of the General of the armies of the United States, to have effect till disapproved, whenever in the opinion of such commander the proper administration of said act shall require it, to suspend or remove from office, or from the performance of official duties and the exercise of official powers, any officer or person holding or exercising, or professing to hold or exercise, any civil or military office or duty in such district, under any power, election, appointment, or authority derived from or granted by, or claimed under any so-called State or the government thereof, or any municipal or other division thereof, and upon such suspension or removal such commander, subject to the approval of the General aforesaid, shall have the power to provide from time to time for the performance of the said duties of such officer or person so suspended or removed, by the detail of some competent officer or soldier of the army or by the appointment of some other person to perform the same, and to fill vacancies occasioned by death, resignation or otherwise.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That the General of the armies of the United States shall be invested with all the powers of suspension, removal, appointment and detail granted in the preceding section to district commanders.

SECTION 4. And be it further enacted, That the acts of the officers of the army already done in removing in said districts persons exercising the functions of civil officers and appointing others in their stead are hereby confirmed; provided that any person heretofore or hereafter appointed by any district commander to exercise the functions of any civil office may be removed, either by the military officer in command of the district or by the General of the army; and it shall be the duty of commanders to remove from office, as aforesaid, all persons who are disloyal to the government of the United States, or who use their official influence in any manner to hinder, delay, prevent or obstruct the due and proper administration of this act, and the acts to which this is supplementary.

SECTION 5. And be it further enacted, That the boards of registration provided for in the act entitled "an act supplementary to an act entitled 'an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States,'" passed March 2, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, shall have power, and it shall be their duty, before allowing the registration of any person, to ascertain upon such facts or information as they can obtain, whether such person is entitled to be registered under said act, and the oath required by said act shall not be conclusive on such question, and no person shall be registered unless such board shall decide that he is entitled thereto; and such board shall also have power to examine under oath (to be administered by any member of such board) any one touching the qualification of any person claiming registration. But in every case of a refusal by the board to register an applicant, made in every case hereinafter provided, the board shall make a note or memorandum, which shall be returned with the registration list to the commanding Generals of the Districts, setting forth the ground of such refusal, or such striking from the list: Provided, that no person shall be disqualified, as a member of any board of registration, by reason of race or color.

SECTION 6. And be it further enacted, That the true intent and meaning of the oath prescribed in said supplementary act is (among other things) that no person who has been a member of the Legislature of any State or who has held any executive or judicial office in any State, whether he has taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States or not, and whether he was holding such office at the commencement of the rebellion or had held it before, and who has afterward engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof, is entitled to be registered or to vote; and the words "executive or judicial office in any State" in said oath mentioned shall be construed to include all civil offices created by law for the administration of the general law of the State, or for the administration of justice.

SECTION 7. And be it further enacted, That the time for completing the original registration provided for in said act may, in the discretion of the commander of any district, be extended to the 1st day of October, 1867; and the boards of registration shall have power, and it shall be their duty, commencing fourteen days prior to any election under said act, and upon reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of three days the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the list. And such board shall also during the same period, add to such registry the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said act who have not been already registered, and no person shall at any time be entitled to be registered or to vote by reason of any executive pardon or amnesty for any act or thing which, without such pardon or amnesty, would disqualify him from registration or voting.

SECTION 8. And be it further enacted, That section 4 of the said last-named act shall be construed to authorize the commanding general named therein, whenever he shall deem it needful, to remove any member of a board of registration, and to appoint another person in his stead, and to fill any vacancy in such board.

SECTION 9. That all members of said Boards of Registration and all persons hereafter elected or appointed to office in said military districts, under any so-called State or municipal authority or by detail or appointment of the District Commanders, shall be required to take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

SECTION 10. That no District Commander or member of the Board of registration or any of the officers or appointees acting under them shall be bound in his action by any opinion of any civil officer of the United States.

SECTION 11. That all the provisions of this act, and the acts to which this is supplementary, shall be construed liberally, to the end that all the intents thereof may be fully and perfectly carried out.

Congressional Reconstruction Bills.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

(Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.)

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established; Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of state authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions: Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

THE EXTINGUISHER.

A New Patent Fire Engine!

BY MEANS OF THIS invention the devouring flames can be subdued in less time than is required to write this notice, and thus your

Houses, Stores and Furniture, and other valuables may be saved when they would be destroyed before a Fire Company could be summoned.

Always Ready, Powerful and Prompt, this little Engine is capable of being used at any time, by any person, and in any place, and consequently, of subduing a fire at the moment of its discovery even though it has already made alarming progress. The great damage usually done by the application of a large quantity of water by an ordinary Engine is almost entirely avoided by this process, as it is not the water which extinguishes the flame, but

Carbonic Acid Gas,

with which it is impregnated. It is

VERY SIMPLE IN ITS OPERATION,

the mere turning of a small tap putting it in complete operation without the slightest danger to life, health or property. It may be kept charged and

Ready for Instant Service, and it need not be re-charged for months, or even for years—so light that any person can carry it with the greatest ease, to any part of a building that may be on fire.

Entirely Self-Propelling, it requires no skill to manage it beyond what is necessary to direct the stream by means of a flexible tube.

The Extinguisher occupies no more space than a bucket of water; weighs, when ready for use, 75 to 95 pounds, is strapped to the shoulders and carried on the back with the greatest ease. It extinguishes fire promptly on Rosin, Tar, and other inflammable material, where water produces no effect.

Wherever this Extinguisher has been tried it has proved Entirely Successful.

The following from a leading New York paper will show its vast utility in a great city; and on Railroads, Steamboats, and in Machine Shops, &c., it must be invaluable.

TIFFANY'S GREAT JEWELRY STORE, N. YORK—Saved by the New Patent Fire Engine.—Between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning a fire broke out on the fourth floor of Tiffany's Jewelry Store, No. 550 Broadway. The fire occurred under a workbench. The flames extended to the fifth floor.—The fire was discovered by a private watchman employed on the premises. Several clerks who slept in the building attempted to extinguish the flames, but were unsuccessful. An alarm was then given, and the fire patrol put out the fire with a Patent Fire Extinguisher. The damage to property was only about $200—insured at the Firemen's Insurance Co.—N. Y. Evening Post.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted &c. That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district named by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

SEC. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such state by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That no convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

SEC. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes cast, of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

SEC. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as hereinspecified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

SEC. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office." Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

SEC. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

SEC. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."
